

An Initiative of the National Integrated Heat Health Information System (NIHHIS)

A workshop to share practitioner perspectives on managing the health risks of extreme heat, and to work toward long- to mid-term interventions to reduce risk.

Northeast Region Heat & Health Workshop

SAVE THE DATE

18 OCTOBER 2018 | Westborough, MA

Planned with the participation of the following organizations:

The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Consortium for Climate Risk in the Urban Northeast (CCRUN), Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency (MEMA), Maine State Climate Office, and Waquoit Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve.

View the Prospectus

[Join Email List
for Updates](#)